

Director PMO Global (m/w/d)

We never play the same old tunes.

Our company - who we are WIKAAlexander Wiegand SE & Co. KG is a leading provider of products and services in measurement technology. With our experience over more than 75 years and the know-how of more than 10,200 employees worldwide, our measurement solutions form the backbone of many technologies. We want to make an active contribution to positively shaping demographic change, digitalisation and sustainability. We are looking for you to promote innovation with new perspectives and ideas and for us to grow together.

Your responsibilities

- Have the ultimate responsibility for WIKA Project business at the project level and manages a project management office of project acquisition engineers and project execution managers
- Assures projects are completed in a timely, efficient, and profitable manner while maintaining customer satisfaction
- Leads & motivates a team of subordinated positions, goal setting, and do performance reviews for assigned personnel
- Responsible for development of personnel through training, coaching, and work assignments
- Grow Project business Sales and Order Intake for EMEA-India Projects business as per budget and Support other Regions for Intercompany business
- Train & develop PMO India counter teams, aligns capacity and workload, and drives the future development of the co-operation

Your Profile

- Bachelor or Master's degree preferably in Engineering (Electrical, Mechanical, Chemical Engineering is a plus)
- Qualification in the field of project management certification IPMA / Prince 2 / PMI is a plus
- Extensive job experience in project business and/or Instrumentation of minimum ten years
- Extensive knowledge of the European and global EPC markets
- Must be willing to travel for job assignments, maintain a rapport with customer representatives, and be dedicated to quality, service, productivity and customer satisfaction
- Advanced in English and basic knowledge of German is a plus

Your benefits

As a global company, we supply customers from a wide variety of industries. For you this means: daily variety, freedom for independent work and diverse opportunities to develop. We reward your services with an attractive remuneration system including company social benefits. Childcare offers as well as sports and leisure opportunities on site ensure your balance and contribute to the compatibility of work and family.

Johanna Sehr
Recruiter / Talent Acquisition Specialist
+49 9372 132-3808