

IPMA INTERNATIONAL EVENT

GLOBAL YOUNG CREW WORKSHOP 2025

Date: 19–21 September 2025

Place: HWR University Berlin

SHAPING THE FUTURE WITH PROJECT MANAGEMENT

The Global Young Crew Workshop (GYCW) is one of the world's leading events for young project management professionals.

From 19–21 September 2025, the GPM Young Crew welcomes you to Berlin – a city full of energy, innovation, and inspiration.

Expect a rich program of hands-on workshops, inspiring keynotes, and collaborative challenges designed to boost your skills, expand your perspective, and create real-world connections. With participants from more than 20 countries, the GYCW is a truly global platform where ideas meet action.

Whether you're just starting your project career or already leading initiatives, GYCW 2025 offers a unique opportunity to:

- Deepen your understanding of project management tools and mindsets
- Explore how projects can drive value beyond business – for people, society, and the planet
- Be part of an energetic and diverse community of changemakers

Connect with future leaders, exchange perspectives, and explore how project management can drive positive impact for organizations, people, and society.
